SISA TIMES VOL - II

MESSAGE FROM CHAIRMAN

The second quarter of the current financial year did not spring much surprises, in terms of new business. I will not blame my team leaders entirely, as the economy was rather sluggish during this period and our country went through spurts of turmoil, here and there.

Notwithstanding this fact, we did manage to pick up some very coveted contracts and for which I give full credit to the unfailing efforts of our dear MD, Sameer.

I have said this before and will repeat it to revive your memory – we as a company are in business to make profits. We can only sustain and grow, if we continue to earn tangible revenue. To do this we have only two options open before us; generate more income by increasing business volume or cut expenses to offset losses. Honestly I am against the latter, so my dear friends, you have only one goal set before you – generate profitable business. SISA is your company, please take ownership and join hands in our progress.

The festive month is round the corner and as always, I and my family wish you lots of happiness, health, wealth and the indomitable spirit to do the impossible. Happy Diwali!!!

God bless and keep you always.

Maj Sushil Kumar Sharma(Retd)
Chairman

SISA TIMES VOL - II

FROM EDITORS DESK

In spite of our busy daily schedule, some of us do find time to participate in the making of SISA Times quarter after quarter. Tania Bhatia is one such person without whose dedication, none of the issues of SISA Times could reach your mail boxes. I take this opportunity to thank Tania for her service and support.

I will not make another futile attempt in requesting our dear SISATARIANS to come forward and contribute towards enriching our e-magazine with their articles, photographs and inputs, which we as a family greatly value. I now believe that the responsibility of showing your loyalty towards our company, germinates from a little show of love, towards an initiative that was started some years back. I am still hopeful that good sense will soon prevail among you and we will be flooded with your inputs for the next edition of SISA Times.

SISA Times is deeply indebted to our Respected Chairman Sir for his valuable opinion that he shares in the Chairman's Message as also to our dear MD Sir for his unstinted support and guidance. Thank you Sirs !!!

With Dhanteras and Diwali round the corner, I am sure everyone will be busy shopping or planning for a grand celebration of lights, sounds, sweets and fun galore. Be safe, keep safe and spread love and good cheer.

Happy Diwali !!!

SISA TIMES VOL - II

The dedication of security personnel towards their duty

This incident took place near Amritsar – the Punjab National cash van which was loaded with about 73 lakh rupees to be distributed at the rural banks . When the Cash van Reached Near the village bhakna it was blocked by a white van and two people were on the Bikes.On seeing this The DRIVER SATISH susupected the wrong intention of the looters and took the back gear and the van went back immediatly. While seeing this the seven looters started the firing and The armed guard inside the Van also started the firing .There was a continuous Firing From our arm Guards and seeing this the Looters could not stand infront of the courage and smartness of our guards and looters were forced to leave and run Away . Hatsoff to the smartness , alertness and courage of our guards who boldly Faced the whole situation and big incident was bought under control.The incident was later reported to the Police and the cash was safely carried to its destination.The Search of the looters is going on.

NOTE THE BULLET SHOTS ON OUR CASH VANS THAT WAS BRAVELY PROTECTED BY OUR DEDICATED GUNMAN AND GUARDS .
